Three Peculiarities

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier and regulating medicine, is characterized by three peculiarities, namely:

1st: The continuation of the various remedial agents used.

2d: The proportion in which the roots, herbs, barks, etc., are mixed.

3d: The process by which the active medicinal properties are secured.

The result is a medicine of unusual strength and curative power, which effects cures here-before unobtainable. These peculiarities belong exclusively to Hood's Sarsaparilla, and are

WRECKED BY A FLOOD.

THE TOWN OF SABINE PASS, TEX., TOTALLY DESTROYED.

Sixty-Five People Perish in the Dreadful Cataclysm—Work of the Storm Elsewhere—Terrible Disaster on the Lakes—A Steamer Run Down and Five Persons Are Drowned.

ORANGE, Tex., Oct. 15.—A flood caused by the rise of River Sabine has totally destroyed the town of Sabine Pass, and sixty-five lives are known to have been lost. During the first rush of the flood a hotel with fifteen people in it was swept into the bay and all the inmates drowned. The town is twelve miles below Beaumont, and a party of men from that town, with a contingent from that place, Thursday started in the steamer Lumar with relief for the distressed people. The captain of a schooner which arrived from Sabine Pass says that not a house is left standing and every living thing was destroyed.

Many buildings were wrecked here, including the Catholic church. Slade trees were blown down and much damage done to farm buildings and stock.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 14.—The loss by the storm in Plaquemine parish alone is estimated at over $25,000. The whole population at Lakeport had to take refuge in the hotel. The sea wall at the jetty was damaged, but the jetty itself was not injured.
The machinery of the pumps were swept away. Reports from Sabine Pass say that the schooner Silas was washed across the railroad track on the prairie.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Western Union telegraph reports that the storm which prevailed in Texas and Louisiana Wednesday and the day before is now traveling in a northerly direction, and is cutting off telegraphic communication as it progresses. New Orleans reports that it has no wireless west, and that the whole coast territory from New Orleans to Galveston is cut off. As the storm is still raging in the southwest, it will be some time before any details of the disaster at Sabine Pass can be obtained.

A Hurricane Visits Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—A windstorm burst upon the city from the southwest at 5 o'clock Thursday morning and tore through the trees of Douglas, Garfield, and Humboldt parks with the fury of a hurricane. Soft maples and saplings were twisted off close to the trunks, and the tops of the larger trees. Two real estate agency buildings on Madison street, near Garfield park, were pulled up by the wind and scattered in all directions. Street car conductors and drivers who were caught in the teeth of the gale say that it was only with the greatest difficulty they saved themselves from being blown from their cars.
All the streets in the western and southern portions of the city were littered with broken trees and shattered sign-boards.
Telegraph wires were blown down, and all communication from the outside temporarily cut off.

Reports received at the signal office show that the storm extends over a wide area, but no particulars can be obtained, as the telegraph wires are down in almost every direction. Reports were also received that a cyclone between Ypsilanti, Mich., and Elk hart, Ind., tore down all the wires in that neighborhood, and on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road the top of a car was blown off and carried along the wires with such force as to break them all.

The Storm in Kankakee.
KANKAKEE, Ill., Oct. 15.—The waterworks tower at this place, completed last week, was blown over Thursday evening, crushing the barrel of H. H. Johnson and a portion of the residence of John Aldrich. Aldrich and wife, in another portion of the house at the time, were uninjured. The tower was 125 feet high, twenty feet across at the base, and cost $10,000. The wind blew down trees and chimneys and tore off roofs. No lives lost.

DISASTER ON THE LAKES.

The steamer Selah Chamberlain Run Down and Five People Drowned.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 15.—M. A. Bradley, of this city, received a dispatch from the captain of the steamer Selah Chamberlain at 1:30 Thursday morning, informing him that the vessel had been run down by a New York Great Lakes mail boat, and had gone to the bottom six miles east of Shebo-gan, on Lake Michigan. The dispatch states that the second engineer and four deck hands were drowned. The Chamberlain was bound from Milwaukee to Escanaba, and had a crew of sixteen men on board. She was owned by the Bradley heirs, of Cleveland, and was valued at $60,000. The names of the passengers and crew are as follows: The accident occurred about 10 p. m. and the vessel was not sighted until 11 p. m.

The vessel was commanded by Capt.
James Lachess, the senior captain of the Bradley line, and was considered a staunch sea boat.

The Bottom Dropped Out of the Cellar.

SHEKANDIAH, Pa., Oct. 15.—The cellar of a man named Hemmery, living on West Cott street, is eighteen feet across and 100 feet deep. The bottom of it dropped out Wednesday falling into the workings of Oakdale colliery. The house is still standing, but four are entertained not only for its safety but for the safety of other buildings in the neighborhood, and the people of that section of the borough are terribly excited.

Looks Too Much Like Nepotism.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—It is understood that the recent appointments of Mr.
Fugh, a son of Senator Fugh, of Alabama, to be deputy sixth auditor, and Mr. Harris, son of Senator Harris, to be chief of division, will be revoked. The president, it is said, told Fourth Auditor Shelby that Senators Fugh and Harris could not afford to have their own given such appointments, because it looked too much like nepotism, and he hinted strongly that if the senators themselves could afford it the administration could not.

It Was a Mummy.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 15.—The dead body of a woman found in a box on an ash-dump Wednesday, turned out to be a ghastly sort of joke. It was traced to the woman's college, where Dr. Pershing identified it as a Peruvian mummy, supposed to be 2,000 years old, and which had been ordered to be disposed of because it had been put in the cellar while repairs were in progress on the college and the rats had infested it so that it was not fit for exhibition.

Ingersoll Favors Henry George.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Chas. R. G. Ingersoll has announced himself in favor of Henry George. He advises the Republicans to refrain from voting for the labor candidate. It does not seem at all probable, however, that his advice will be followed.

Heavy Failure at Manchester.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—Jackson, Brierly & Briggs, merchants at Manchester, have suspended. Their liabilities are $400,000.

Public Notice.

Anyone having business with the Anous office after 6 p. m. (in the event that the office is closed) will please call at Wil-

River Rapids.

The Pittsburg will be down Sunday morning.

The Mary Morton will be up about 5 o'clock this afternoon and lay over here until daylight when she will proceed over the rapids. Agent Lamont, has a good trip of freight for her.

The new steel barge built for the Diamond Jo steamboat company was launched yesterday morning at Dubuque.
It was pulled into the river by the transfer steamer Campbell.

The Penguin, belonging to A. J.
Whitney's fleet, was sunk in the rapids near the mouth of Duck creek during yesterday's storm. She will be raised as soon as possible.

Capt. Wash Hight, the veteran steamboat pilot, says yesterday morning's storm was one of the most continuous severe blows he has ever known on the river.

Rays From the Headlight.

Commencing today, the C. M. & St.
P. reduces its rates to all points in Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota and Wisconsin to three cents per mile.

A great commotion has been created in East Dubuque by the purchase of a tract of land by the C. B. & N. road there, for the purpose it is supposed, of locating shops, etc.

Superintendent J. D. Bessler, and J.
P. Resque, superintendent of the Illinois lines of the C. B. & N. Q., were in the city last evening in Mr. Bessler's private coach, and left on a trip up the Sterling branch this morning.

Railroad men on the southern division of the C. R. I. & P., relate a peculiar freak of the wind yesterday morning in blowing a box car six miles from Washington to Amesworth, Iowa. An attempt was made to overtake it with a locomotive, but the endeavor proved a failure.

AN INTERESTING CASE.

Distinguished Talent Engaged for the Hazletting Talent Trial.

STEVENS POINT, Wis., Oct. 15.—The most intense interest is manifested, not only in this city, but throughout the county and northern part of the state, in the trial of the case of W. W. Hastings, for the killing of A. C. Morse, which event took place here last June. The list of counsel includes some of the ablest legal talent in this and other states.

The state is represented by District Attorney

L. A. Calkins, assisted by H. O. Ethers, the well known Jansville attorney and politician, and ex-State Senator John Winans, also of Jansville. It is said the attorneys practicing in the prosecution are employed by Mr.

Morse, the father of the deceased, who is attending the trial accompanied by a brother of the dead hunter. The counsel for the defendant includes Senator Dan W. Wadsworth, of Indiana, and James O. Raymond, Judge

Cate and James A. Sanborn, of Stevens Point.

It is said that Morse died in the street because of Morse's alleged improper intimacy with Mrs. Hastings.

Important But Probably Apocryphal.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—The Post's Vienna dispatch asserts that Turkey has rejected overture by Russia for joint action against England and Austria. The involvement offered by Russia was permission for Turkey to re-occupy Bosnia and Herzegovina, whereupon Russia was to protect the powers and occupy Bulgaria ostensibly in self-defense. It was a part of the plan that Egypt should be occupied by French and Turkish garrisons under command of a French general, and that Greece should take possession of the territory guaranteed her by the Berlin treaty.

A Minister's Downfall.

EASTON, Md., Oct. 15.—The Rev. John E.

Mohrman, a prominent member of the Wilsonian conference of the Methodist Episopal church, is under arrest for raising two notes, each $200, and selling them. They were purported to be drawn by Mr. J. Harper, but that gentleman says that he gave Mr. Mohr-man two notes, each $200, and that he paid for a note held by the Easton bank, which Harper had intimated for Nowbray.

Mohrman's ministerial career had been more
